

FACULTY OF MEDICINE
UNIVERSITY OF BERGEN

DOCTORAL DISSERTATION DEFENCE

Peter John Binyaruka

Candidate from Department of Global Public Health and Primary Care

Main supervisor: Professor Gaute Torsvik

Co-supervisors: Professor Bjarne Robberstad, ph.d. Josephine Borghi

Trial lecture: Wednesday, 7 November 2018, 10:30

Place: Auditorium, Armauer Hansens hus, Haukelandsveien 28

Topic: “The systemic effects of Payment for performance in low and middle-income countries: their study and their optimization, an agenda for researchers, aid agencies and national policy makers”

Defence: Wednesday, 7 November 2018, 12:30

Place: Auditorium, Armauer Hansens hus, Haukelandsveien 28

Dissertation: “Distributional effects of payment for performance in the health sector. Examining effects on structural quality, performance outcomes and service utilisation in Tanzania”

1. opponent: Professor Sophie Witter, Queen Margaret University, Scotland.

2. opponent: Professor Bruno Meessen, Institute of Tropical Medicine, Belgium.

Committee leader: Professor Anne Kjersti Daltveit, University of Bergen.

The defence will be led by Professor Sven Gudmund Hinderaker.

The public is invited